

Carrie Menkel-Meadow and Robert Meadow Public Interest Scholarship

UCI School of Law's Office of Student Financial Services is pleased to announce the Carrie Menkel-Meadow and Robert Meadow Endowed Public Interest Scholarship. As a member of the Founding Faculty, Professor Menkel-Meadow has long been committed to the school's mission of encouraging law students to work in the public interest. She and her husband, Dr. Robert Meadow, established this award to support students and to further this important mission. Any 3rd year UCI Law student who meets the criteria below is encouraged to apply for this one-time award of up to $10,000.

Eligibility: Third year law student in good academic standing who intends to pursue a career in public interest law upon their graduation in Spring 2024.

Scholarship Award: $10,000

The Carrie Menkel-Meadow and Robert Meadow Endowed Public Interest Scholarship will be awarded in addition to any UCI Law Scholarship may already be receiving. If the recipient has borrowed federal loans up to the cost of attendance, the scholarship will be used to replace student loans.

To apply: To apply, students must submit the application including the two attachments in pdf form by email (saved as a single PDF) to the Student Financial Services, finaid@law.uci.edu, no later than Friday, February 9, 2024 at 4:00 pm:

- Complete Application Form
