

UCI Law Competition, Antitrust Law, and Innovation Forum (CALIF)
Spring 2018 Antitrust Scholars Roundtable

April 13, 2018

UCI School of Law, Room EDU 1111

- 9:30–10:00 Breakfast and Welcome
- 10:00–11:00 John Newman, Assistant Professor of Law, Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law,
University of Memphis
“Are Digital Markets Different?”
- 11:00–12:00 Marina Lao, Professor of Law at Seton Hall University School of Law
“Workers in the “Gig” Economy: The Case for Extending the Antitrust Labor Exemption”
- 12:00–1:00 Lunch
- 1:00–2:00 D. Daniel Sokol, University of Florida Research Foundation Professor of Law,
University Term Professor, University of Florida Levin College of Law “How Incumbents Respond to Competition from Innovative Disruptors in the Sharing Economy? The Impact of Airbnb on Hotel Performance”
- 2:00–3:00 Spencer Weber Waller, John Paul Stevens Chair in Competition Law and Director, Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies, Loyola University Chicago
School of Law
“Antitrust and Democracy versus Democracy in Antitrust”
- 3:00–3:15 Closing Comments and Adjournment