

China and International Economic Law and Institutions

February 2–3, 2017
Workshop Schedule

Thursday, Feb. 2

- 2:30–3:00 Welcome
Introductory remarks by Gregory Shaffer, UC Irvine School of Law
- 3:00–4:00 “China and the WTO: Participation and Global Governance” by Wei Liang, Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey commentator: Margaret Pearson
- 4:00–5:00 “Invest, Hold-up, or Accept? Explaining China's Evolving Approach to Global Financial Governance” by Margaret M. Pearson, University of Maryland commentator: Susan Shirk, UC San Diego
- 5:00–5:15 Break
- 5:15–6:15 “China and International Economic-Legal Institutions: A Revisionist Option” by Jacques deLisle, University of Pennsylvania Law School commentator: Richard Steinberg, UCLA School of Law
- 7:30–9:30 Dinner

Friday, Feb. 3

- 8:40–9:00 Breakfast
- 9:00–10:00 “China and International Trade: How China Took On the U.S. through Investing in Law”
by Gregory Shaffer commentator: Mark Wu
- 10:00–11:00 “The End of an Era for Global Trade: Resetting the U.S. Trade Policy in the Wake of the Trans-Pacific Partnership’s Demise” by Mark Wu, Harvard Law School commentator: Jacques deLisle
- 11:00–11:15 Break
- 11:15–12:15 “China’s Road to Prosperity and Development: Does One Belt Fit All?”
by Ljiljana Biuković, Peter A. Allard School of Law, University of British Columbia commentator: Wei Liang
- 12:15–1:15 Lunch and adjournment