

Daniel S. H. Lee

Daniel Lee's passion for justice and community activism led him to steer and manage various community and grassroots projects including the affordable housing campaign, equitable community development and civil rights. In 2007, Mr. Lee served as one of the national coordinators of HR 121 Coalition who spearheaded the passage of H.Res. 121, the United States House of Representatives Resolution that demanded the Japanese government to acknowledge, apologize and accept historical responsibility for forcing "comfort women," young Korean women into sexual slavery during World War II. He is currently serving as a board member to several non-profit community organizations including Korean Churches for Community Development (KCCD), My One Vote, Love In Music, and Korean American Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles. In addition, Mr. Lee has been a member of the Host Committee of Fundraising of Koreatown Immigrant Workers Advocates (KIWA). He also served as commissioner of the Centennial Commission of the City of Torrance, CA. Daniel S. H. Lee is a partner of Lee & Oh, APLC, a law firm based in Los Angeles, California.
